Vermont was it's own country before being admitted as the 14th State. Founded in 1777, the Vermont Republic operated a post office, issued its own currency called Vermont coppers, and abolished slavery.

Flamin' Hot Cheetos were developed by a janitor at Frito-Lay, Richard Montanez, who got the idea after putting chili powder on some reject Cheetos and then pitched it to the CEO. He's now a successful executive and motivational speaker, and a movie is in the works about his life.

Dr. Horatio Nelson Jackson of Burlington, Vermont was the first to drive an automobile across the U.S. in 1903. Someone challenged Jackson that he couldn't make it to New York City by car in less than 90 days. He along with a 22-year-old bicycle racer and gasoline mechanic set off to achieve the feat in a used 20 horsepower Winton touring car. The duo completed the journey in less than 64 days. The cost of the journey was around $8,000.

Vermont became the 14th state in 1791. It was the first admitted after the thirteen colonies.

It takes about 40 years for a sugar maple to grow large enough, at least 10 inches in diameter, to tap. Then it takes some 40 gallons of sap to produce a single gallon of syrup. Don't waste a drop!

Lake Champlain, located primarily in Vermont with parts in New York and Quebec, isn't as big as the Great Lakes, but it does have its own monster according to legends. Champ is said to be friendly, 20 to 80 feet long, and have a head like either a snake or a dog. The most famous photo of him was taken back in 1977.

In 1968, Vermont legislators decided to enact a state-wide ban on the installation of billboards. The authorities implemented this change to preserve the state's natural beauty. The ban helped boost tourism. Vermont became the second state to ban billboards, Hawaii was first state in the 1920's. Maine followed in the 1980's and Alaska in 1998.

Local authorities in two Vermont towns shocked the nation in 2008 by passing resolutions aimed at the arrest of the then President George W. Bush and Dick Cheney.

The resolution meant that individuals could effect a citizens' arrest if the two men ever visited Marlboro or Brattleboro. The town came to this decision because they felt that the two leaders violated the constitution.

THE FOLLOWING CHECKLIST CAN HELP YOU TAKE STEPS TO KEEP YOURSELF SAFER ONLINE.

○ CHECK YOUR COMMENTS AND IMAGES.

Have you posted anything inappropriate or illegal, like threats, nudity, alcohol, or drugs?

○ TALK TO YOUR FRIENDS ABOUT WHAT'S OK TO POST.

Agree that you won't post embarrassing or hurtful comments or images of each other. Be clear that you'll delete – or if needed, report – any posts that are inappropriate, illegal, threatening, or could get you in trouble.

○ REVIEW YOUR ACCOUNT SETTINGS.

Always ask yourself – what is on my profile and who can see it?

○ KNOW YOUR FRIENDS, CONTACTS, AND FOLLOWERS.

These are the people who can see, share, and comment on what you post so you want to be sure you can trust them. Block and report anyone who makes harassing, threatening, or inappropriate comments.

○ KEEP AN EYE ON 3RD PARTY AND CONNECTED APPS.

Some of these will allow you to log into one app using account information from another. Be careful, as this may allow the company access to your profile information.

○ DON'T FORGET MOBILE.

When you use mobile devices like smartphones and tablets to post something or check in, you could also be sharing your location. Check your settings to make sure you're only sharing what you want to.

○ REPORT.

You have the right to be safe online. If anyone cyberbullies you, make a report to the website or app. If anyone shares or asks you to share sexual messages or images, make a report to CyberTipline.org.

It's always been easier for me to help others

than to help myself

As a Veteran, when someone raises their hand for help, you're often one of the first ones to respond. But it's also okay to get help for yourself. Maybe you want or need assistance with employment, stress, finances, mental health or finding the right resources. No matter what it is, you earned it. And there's no better time than right now to ask for it. Don't wait. Reach out.
